Fuchs Admits Guilt As Spy

Prosecutor Says He Aided Russia 7 Yrs. Closing Of State Colleges Will Not Cut GI Allowances

London, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A brilliant German-born British scientist with a jekyll and hyde personality, Dr. Klaus Fuchs, has confessed he betrayed American and British atomic secrets to Soviet Russia for seven years, a crown prosecutor said in court today.

Soviet development of the hydrogen super-bomb may have been speeded by these disclosures. Senator Tydings (D-Md) estimated in Washington today the secrets would give Russia a lift of a year or more.

The thin, bespectacled Fuchs, 38, a leftist refugee from Nazism who became a trusted top man at Britain's Harwell atomic plant, sat calmly and mute at a 2½-hour preliminary hearing that ended with an order for his trial at the 28 sessions of the criminal court at London's Old Bailey.

Described in the British press as a 1932 recruit of the German Communist party, Fuchs was officially charged with giving atom secrets of value to a potential enemy on two occasions—once in the United States in 1945 and once in England in 1947. Conviction would carry a penalty up to 14 years at hard labor.

Prosecutor T. Christmas Humphreys said Fuchs has confessed the charges—and more. He and prosecution witnesses related that Fuchs admitted having contacts with Russian agents in New York, Boston, Los Angeles and London since early in 1942. Fuchs was a member of the British team of atomic experts who worked in the United States from 1943 through 1946.

Humphreys read portions of the amazing story he said was dictated by Fuchs. The prosecution indicated the secrets concerned are so vital the full text never will be made public.

The sections read, however, disclosed the story of a brilliant mind split between Fuchs' ties in England and his belief that Communism would one day give Russia world domination.

"I used my Marxian philosophy to conceal my thoughts, which had to be separated into two compartments," the statement said. "x x x looking back now, the best way is to call it controlled schizophrenia (split personality)."

Fuchs was quoted as saying he gave information to the Soviet embassy here and in 1946 received "symbolic payment" of £100 ($400 at the time). He also got some expensive money.

Says New Illinois Museum Will Be Best In Midwest

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—V. V. Dallman said tonight that a proposed new Illinois state museum building at Springfield "will be developed into one of the greatest educational, cultural and recreational institutions in the Midwest."

Dallman, chairman of the state board of advisers of the museum, discussed the project at a dinner meeting of officers of chambers of commerce throughout Illinois. Dallman is editor of the Illinois State Register at Springfield. He also is collector of internal revenue for the capital area.

He said appropriations for the museum have yet to be made. Dallman said thousands of persons have become interested in the project through the "museumobile," a museum on wheels which is accepting calls to all counties of Illinois.

He said there are tentative plans to build another "museumobile" to facilitate carrying these educational values into every book and corner of the state.

CHANUTE FIELD ASKS FOR AIR LIFT TO FLY IN CANADIAN COAL

Chanute Air Base, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Chanute Air Base today asked for air force headquarters for an airlift to fly coal here from Canada.

Technical schools at the base will be closed tomorrow unless more coal arrives, said Capt. Seth Lurie, public information officer.

He said the present fuel supply will last only until 6 a.m. Sunday. The base had planned to close down its schools yesterday and grant furloughs to several thousand airmen because of the fuel shortage resulting from the coal walkout.

It postponed the closing when O'Hare national airport in Chicago port the victim, Edward Eder, III, offered to share their coal supplies. Capt. Lurie said the promised fuel has not arrived.

Dismissal Threat In Christoffel's 2nd Trial Fades

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A dismissal threat hanging over the Harold Christoffel perjury retrial diminished today when an impasse between the House and federal district court started to dissolve.

Meanwhile, the trial was recessed until Monday.

Christoffel is a former Milwaukee labor leader, accused of lying to the House labor committee on March 1, 1947 when he said he wasn't a communist and never had communist connections. The committee at the time was investigating alleged communist infiltration of labor unions.

The House and the court deadlocked over whether the records of a closed-door committee session that followed Christoffel's testimony that day should be produced at the trial.

The defense demanded the committee's minutes book. Judge F. Dickson Letts twice issued subpoenas for it. And twice the House balked at producing any records.

Letts insisted the minutes book "must be here in this court." Some quarters said the case against Christoffel might be dismissed unless the House relented.

But the situation changed overnight.

"I am further advised that vacation during school terms do not count against accumulated leave. The current closings will take the place of the regular spring vacations and the use of accumulated leave will, to that extent, be minimized."

Under the GI program, allowances are cut off to students who interrupt their courses. However, veterans in school accumulate leave at the rate of two and a half days a month. The four schools involved are Illinois State Normal University, Northern Teachers at DeKalb, Eastern Illinois State College at Charleston and Western Illinois State college at Macomb.

100 Towns Fight For It But Henry Farmers Shun It

New Castle, Ind., Feb. 10.—(AP)—More than 100 communities are scrambling for the proposed national air force academy, but the farmers of Henry county's Blue river valley are dead set against its being located there.

The Blue river men boast their valley has the richest farmland in the world. The air force isn't going to get it for non-agricultural purposes if they can help it.

More than 100 of them went into action after a member of the Henry county planning commission said he had learned army engineers intend to forward a survey of the area to the air force site selecting committee.

The farmers named as a "watchdog committee" five of their number who own a total of 1,500 acres in the possible site.

George Irvin, chairman of the "watchdog committee," said "we feel there are plenty of places in the country where the air force could put up just as good an academy without moving a lot of people from their homes."

Officials said exploratory surveys were made in the area only because it is within a 50-mile radius of Richmond, Ind. That city is waging an aggressive campaign for the proposed academy.

SLAUGHTER TOTALS HIGHER IN DECEMBER

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Commercial slaughtering houses in Illinois produced 198,000,000 pounds of meat during December, 1949, the state-federal agriculture department said today.

This was eight percent more than in November but eight percent below December, 1948.

The slaughter totals for last December included 146,393,000 live-weight pounds of cattle, 211,501,000 pounds of hogs, 10,441,000 pounds of sheep and lambs and 14,018,000 pounds of calves.

Two U. S. GIs Confess They Kidnapped Austrian For Reds

Vienna, Austria, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Two American GIs have confessed a kidnapping-for-profit deal with Russian agents, the U. S. army announced today.

The two snatched an Austrian last Nov. 11—Armistice Day—and handed him over to the agents for $250, the announcement said, adding that profit was the sole motive and indicating politics never entered the soldiers' minds.

The two soldiers will be tried by a general court martial within a few weeks. The army identified them as Sgt. John Franky, 29, Madison, Wis., and Cpl. Paul Abel, 26, Bolivar, Mo.

If convicted the two face dishonorable discharge from the army and long prison terms at hard labor. Franky is known to members of his battalion as a happy-go-lucky sort who likes fun. He and Abel, the army said, got a jeep for holiday pay, apparently just because it was Armistice Day, and used it to transport the victim, Edward Eder, III, to his home in the hands of the Russian agents.

The army recently announced it services.

State Asks Death For Two Charged With Death Of Man

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The state asked the death penalty today for two young ex-convicts charged with murdering an armed guard in a $920 bank holdup.

A criminal court jury of four women and eight men was expected to begin deliberating the fate of Joseph Jakalski, 32, and Richard Tamborski, 24, later tonight.

Two Brink's Express Company guards were slain by machine gun fire during the holdup at the South Chicago Savings bank last June 25.

However, Jakalski and Tamborski were tried in the killing of only one of the guards, Bruce Kostol.

Indicted with Jakalski and Tamborski in the Kostol killing and for the slaying of the other guard, Joseph Deu, were Davis Ederly, 33, and James Hoyland, 29.

But Ederly and Hoyland pleaded guilty in both cases and are awaiting sentence. Ederly turned state's evidence during the Jakalski-Tamborski trial.

Senate Takes 7 Minutes To Okay 88 Million Plan

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—In less than seven minutes, the Senate today gave final approval to an $88,000,000 program for non-military aid to South Korea and Formosa in the far Pacific.

The measure passed the House yesterday, 240 to 134. It now goes to the White House.

Simultaneously, the government announced a new move to help check communism in the Far East—an agreement to loan up to $100,000,000 to the new republic of the United States of Indonesia.

The loan credit, biggest in months, fits in with U. S. policy of attempting to stem communism by strengthening local democratic regimes over the world.

Indonesia was formerly owned by The Netherlands.

The American loan, made by the federal Export-Import bank, will be used to finance purchases in the United States of industrial supplies and equipment—railroad cars, trucks, etc.—to build up the Indonesian economy.

In other developments, 1. The state department announced that the United States has protested to Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese nationalist regime against "deliberate" bombing attacks on American-owned property in Shanghai. The air raids were launched from Formosa.

2. At Lake Success, N. Y., organizations representing nationals of 16 countries in Red Shanghai called on the United Nations to halt bombings by Chinese nationalist warplanes.

Gen. Chiang's Formosa-based government has warned that air raids will continue against Shanghai and other China mainland cities including ancient Peking, the capital.

Formosa, now girding against an expected communist invasion, lies 160 miles off the Chinese mainland.

The appeal to the United Nations said continued damage to Shanghai's power and other vital functions would make the city uninhabitable. It said heavy casualties already had been inflicted among civilians and a bombing assault Monday that "calamity faces x x x defenseless suffering human beings."

In Washington, the state department said the U. S. protest to Formosa demanded "prompt and categorical assurances" against renewed attacks on American property in Shanghai.

The American-owned Shanghai power company and Standard Vacuum Oil company property at Shanghai were reported damaged in last Monday's raids.

Negro, Convicted Of Murder, Tries To Tell Deaf Dad

Norristown, Pa., Feb. 10.—(AP)—A 49-year-old negro convicted of murder in the first degree carefully went through detailed pantomimes of hanging and electrocution in a vain attempt today to convey the verdict to his deaf father.

Ollie M. Carey, ex-convict, put on his gruesome show while the seven women and five men of the jury individually droned out "guilty...first degree, death." Carey's attorney asked for a poll of the jury which convicted Carey of killing Thomas J. Mathews, patrolman in Abington township near Philadelphia.

The condemned man's 82-year-old father was seated behind him. After the foreman announced the verdict and when his lawyer rose to ask a poll, Carey swung his chair around and caught his deaf father's eye.

Carey jerked a forefinger across his throat. The aged man did not understand. Then Carey drew his tie tight around his throat, and rolled his eyes. When the old man still did not comprehend Carey began a shovelling motion, apparently indicating a grave being dug.

The old man's face remained blank. Then, as one by one the jurors individually condemned him to death, Carey made his supreme attempt. He sat erect in his chair, his arms on the rests where the electrodes of the death chair would be, stiffened as if receiving the charge, jerked his head convulsively and then fell back.

All in the courtroom understood the expressive acting perfectly except the old man. His doomed son then signalled to a youth behind his father to get the verdict across. The youth did so, and the old man rushed weeping from the courtroom.

BORROW ROCK CRUSHER

Monticello, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Two coal dealers borrowed a rock crushing machine from a gravel pit today to grind their supply of lump coal into stoker fuel. They were not able to get shipments of the finely ground coal.

Hitch In Berlin Barge Traffic Next On Soviet Agenda

Berlin, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A hitch in Soviet-controlled barge traffic to Berlin is coming up next, but it looks like a legitimate case, a British spokesman said today.

The Northwest German radio announced the Russians intend to stop barge traffic to Berlin from Magdeburg, 70 miles southwest of Berlin. This is a secondary route in the intricate system of canals.

The British investigated. Their spokesman said the Russians intend to close the locks on the Rotensee for about 10 days for repairs. He pointed out that most of the barge supplies enter the Berlin orbit by way of Hamburg, in the north.

The Soviet-controlled railways handle the bulk of the supplies for West Berlin, under American, British and French occupation. They carry in from 9,000 to 12,000 tons a day. Barges and trucks supplement this flow.

The Russians permitted Berlin-bound truck traffic to flow readily this afternoon through their frontier checkpoint at Helmsdorf, on the main highway 100 miles west of this city.

Wheaton Prayer Meet Ends After 38-Hour Session

Wheaton, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—A marathon public demonstration of religious fervor that erupted Wheaton College was halted after 38 hours today—but some students continued the revival for another five hours in a secluded side room.

Meanwhile, a scheduled 30-minute chapel service at the northern Chicago lasted for seven hours as a student after student rose to profess his faith.

Dr. Charles W. Koeller, president of the seminary, termed it a "very deep and genuine moving of the Holy Spirit such as we haven't seen in this school in the twelve years I've been here."

Dr. Koeller attributed both the Wheaton and his own school's demonstrations as the beginnings of a "sweeping spiritual revolution," he said, "the only thing that can save America and the world."

At Wheaton, there were indications the public testimonials might be resumed tonight.

President V. Raymond Edman interrupted the spontaneous prayer meeting at 9 a. m. (CST) to tell 900 tired students in the college memorial chapel that "outsiders might think the revival has become too showy."

Missing Suicide Note Turns Up In Death Of Student

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A missing note, tied in with the disappearance of a Northwestern university cheerleader, turned up today. A psychiatrist to whom it was mailed turned it over to authorities.

The letter was similar in tone to a note the fraternity room mate of Leo Baker, Jr., said he saw before Baker disappeared, threatening suicide.

Attorneys for the Chicago psychiatrist—who asked that his name not be used—gave the letter to John S. Boyle, state's attorney of Cook (Chicago) county. It said in part: "If there is an hereafter (and I have my doubts) then perhaps we you and I will meet again and I can tell me what the world said of my passing, and if it helped anyone, thing or anyone, and what the status quo is when you leave earth."

"I'll be extremely interested to keep things tabulated and account. I'll be appreciative. And now, kind sir, adieu."

The room mate, freshman Richard B. Truitt, 17, told police that he had come upon Baker, former president of Beta Theta Pi, in the water of Lake Michigan Tuesday night. The freshman reported that he, a prominent swimmer, had struggled among the ice floes trying to save Baker, but failed.

Says U. S. Could Get Billion By Plugging Tax Loopholes

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A New England industrialist, whose operations in the field of charitable trusts were once the object of a senate inquiry, told congress today that the government could collect $1,000,000,000 a year extra by plugging tax-law "loopholes."

Royal Little, of Rhode Island, a-year revision of the tax laws went before the House Ways and Means committee.

Little, who said he built up a charity trust from $500 to $4,500,000, said one way of gaining the new revenue would be to wipe out tax-exemption privileges now enjoyed by educational and charitable organizations which conduct outside business activities.

He said that such "unrelated" businesses should be taxed just like other corporations.

A representative of President Truman will place a wreath on the tomb Sunday morning.

Other groups paying tribute to the commander will be the veterans of foreign wars, Jewish war veterans, the young Republican organization and lawyers of Sangamon county (Springfield).

Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, will address the young Republican Lincoln Day dinner tomorrow night.

New Garage Blocks River Road; Angry Fishermen Down It

Plummer's Cove, Fla., Feb. 10.—(AP)—The pitchforks and axes are piled away and the mullet are jumping high again in this St. Johns river community.

They're cutting down the old oak tree and beating down the new garage that blocked a road to the river and set the fisherfolk on a near rampage.

All is good fellowship between the citizenry and druggist G. Murphy, who refused at first to remove the tree and the garage.

A heavy truck was reached yesterday when the two men's wives armed themselves with pitchforks, scythes, rakes and axes and threatened to march on the garage and tear it down.

Today, Murphy pitched in and helped the townspeople start clearing away the obstacles.

"Everything is harmonious again," he said.

In erecting the garage about 150 feet from his house Murphy closed a 20-foot dirt road leading to one of the best mullet fishing spots on the St. Johns.

The fishermen said they depended on the spot for a living and used the road to get their axes to the river's edge.

Plummer's Cove is 16 miles south of Jacksonville.

Driscoll Calls For More Political Honesty, Courage

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Gov. Alfred Driscoll of New Jersey called tonight for more political honesty and courage, for a "cooperative federalism," and for less federal bureaucracy.

The Republican governor said there is every sign that voters recognize "the delusion of big government" and of the Democrats.

They soon will return to "the positive and I will meet again and I can tell me what the world said of my passing, and if it helped anyone, thing or anyone, and what the status quo is when you leave earth."

By cooperative federalism he said he means participation by the states "to keep the union from falling apart of its own weight."

They must work together to expose "the benevolent despotism of a big government, which knows no limit to its own authority and takes with one hand twice what it gives with the other."

Government Drops Suit To Send Ricca Back To Prison

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The government today dropped its fight to send Paul The Walter Ricca, one-time Capone mobster, back to prison.

Ricca is on parole from a federal penitentiary to which he had been sentenced, along with other gang men in 1940, to 10 years on charges of extorting $1,000,000 from the movie industry.

Ricca, along with Charles (Cherry Nose) Gioe and Louis (Little New York) Campagna were paroled, but their paroles later were revoked. Campagna and Gioe were hustled back to prison, but Ricca appealed. The U. S. circuit court of appeals upheld his appeal.

Today federal Judge Michael L. Igoe signed an order releasing Ricca from his $10,000 bond. Prosecutor J. Miller, assistant U. S. attorney, said that because of "legal considerations" the government did not plan an appeal to the supreme court.

Ricca remains as a parolee. Campagna and Gioe since have appealed to the supreme court from the return to prison order.

Board Says Report To Be Ready Today

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—President Truman may be in a position tomorrow to seek a Taft-Hartley injunction against the nationwide soft coal strike.

An official of the presidential board of inquiry studying the dispute between John L. Lewis and the operators said it was "almost a certainty" that its report will go to the White House early tomorrow.

This would permit a request for a federal court injunction ordering an 80-day cooling off period. Whether the United Mine Workers would obey such an order was not yet clear.

Injunctions Don't Mine Coal

CIO President Philip Murray and AFL President William Green observed today, after a visit to the White House, that "injunctions don't mine coal."

They gave their views in response to questions of reporters who asked whether a Taft-Hartley injunction would get the striking miners back to work. Neither would discuss the merits of the controversy.

The two, ardent foes of the Taft-Hartley Act, were at the White House on another matter.

An injunction's teeth is the court's power to punish by fines and jail sentences failure to obey it.

Over the nation the strike of 370,000 soft coal miners took a mounting toll of jobs as shortages pinched harder at industry. Coal-burning railroad passenger service must be cut in half at midnight tonight, and coal-burning freight service reduced 25 percent under government order.

Knock Out Many Trains

This will knock out hundreds of trains and add an estimated group of railroaders to the 35,000 workers already laid off in industries depending on coal. However, railroad unemployment is not as great as in previous coal walkouts because the lines are substituting diesel locomotives for coal burners as they become available.

Estimates of coal stockpiles varied from one week to three weeks supply but they were spread unevenly. In Massachusetts Gov. Paul A. Dever announced an emergency and appointed a state board to take charge of available coal.

Some cities were on coal rations, and others kept an anxious eye on developments while delaying drastic steps.

Any hope of immediate negotiations between John L. Lewis and the operators died out quickly despite a court decision to erase four of the major contract demands of the United Mine leaders. This will sharply narrow the big issues to wages and welfare payments.

This decision, by Federal Judge Richmond B. Keach, was to be made formal by an injunction. This will prevent Lewis from insisting on terms ruled illegal under the Taft-Hartley Act pending the outcome of a case before the National Labor Relations Board. In that suit Lewis has been charged with unfair labor tactics.

WITHOUT RUSSIA'S CO-OPERATION

President Truman has been asked by 150 distinguished Americans to help strengthen the United Nations so it can bring the world arms race to a halt. In a letter to the President, these citizens pointed out that 22 U. S. senators and 104 representatives favor a Congressional resolution to give the UN more power.

This idea of meeting the problems of peace and war by increasing international authority has captured the imagination of many earnest people in and out of Washington. Proposals range all the way from moderate changes in the UN to sweeping world government.

We certainly must applaud the aims of these people. Plainly they are deeply concerned that peace be preserved, and they are willing to expend their own effort to that end.

But almost without exception their proposals suffer one major weakness: A stronger UN or a world government is not possible without the co-operation and support of the Soviet Union. For surely no sensible proponent of these plans believes the cause of peace would be well served by leaving Russia out of the key world organization.

Yet any realistic appraisal immediately throws grave doubt on the chances of drawing Russia into an arrangement that would mean less national power and more world authority. Experts on the UN often put it this way: If we could get the kind of agreement with Russia we need for such a plan, we could find the necessary accord to make the existing UN workable.

In other words, there's nothing so drastically wrong with the present setup that couldn't be largely cured by understanding between Russia and the other great powers. No world council, no agency for peace can be successful unless there is basic co-operation among all the powerful nations.

No one sitting in on the UN's founding at San Francisco would have pretended for a moment that the UN they were creating would work with the great powers at swords' points. It may well be that the UN could be more strongly organized. But obviously that change is a secondary step, not a primary one.

The first order of business is to find a ground for better understanding among all the big nations. Only when that is achieved will Russia—and the others, too, for that matter—be willing to yield national sovereignty to a higher world order.

They can't be compelled to do this; they must want to do it.

Boyle's Column

The Dog That Couldn't Talk

By Hal Boyle
New York—(AP)—Once upon a time there was a dog named Rover.

And he felt he had a bone to pick with life. He was the loneliest dog anywhere.

The reason was simple. In a world of talking dogs Rover was a misfit. He couldn't say a word.

All his canine friends belonged to radio comedians, who have a monopoly on talking dogs. What a life they led! All they had to do was toss off a few gags to their bosses, and take the rest of the day off.

The comedians would then go on the air, and quote what the dogs said, and everybody would just die laughing.

"Why don't you wise up, Rover?" the other dogs told him. "There's no future in being the strong silent type."

Well, Rover tried. The only job he could get was night watchdog in a peppermint factory, so he had plenty of free time. Night after night he would squat in front of a mirror in the factory and practice his vowels and consonants. But all he ever said was:

"Urrroooph... uurrroooph... phrroooph."

Finally Rover went to a psychiatrist. He took a pencil in his paws and wrote yes, wrote after all he wasn't illiterate, the following:

"I don't hate my father or mother. I just want to work for a comedian and live a rich, full life. But I can't talk."

"Hm," said the psychiatrist. "How odd. The patient before you was a comedian who wanted me to help him think up a new comedy routine."

So the psychiatrist called back the comedian and said:

"Look, why don't you hire Rover and become the only comedian in America who owns a non-talking dog?"

At first the comedian said, "Who ever heard of such a thing?" But then he thought it over and said, "Why, it's the idea of the century! Come on, Rover."

Well, they went on the air and Rover, the non-talking dog, became an international sensation. The comedian would ask, "Who was that lady I seen with last night?" and Rover would answer, "Bow wow!"

It panicked the nation. As Rover and his master grew wealthy and famous, the other comedians and their talking dogs lost out.

One night the hungry and envious talking dogs ambushed Rover as he left the radio station.

"What have you got to say for yourself?" they demanded.

"Bow wow," said Rover worriedly. "Okay, wise guy—so you won't talk," snarled one of the pack. And he and the other unemployed dogs fell on Rover with their fangs.

There was only one thing for Rover to do—and he did it. He lifted his muzzled muzzle and howled in a strong clear tenor:

"Help! Police! Help! I am beset by ruffians!"

Moral: If you can't make small talk—yelp.

Veterans Taking GI Farm Training Must File Report

Illinois veterans who are taking institutional on-farm training under GI Bill of Rights were warned Friday by the Illinois Veterans Commission to make a report of their 1949 earnings by March 1, 1950 or face suspension of their subsistence.

The reports must be made to the Veterans Administration so they can adjust each veteran's subsistence for the current year (1950). Reports should cover only the income from productive labor for the calendar year of 1949. They should be based upon farm accounting records kept by the veteran trainees as part of his course of instruction.

Nearly 15,000 veterans are taking institutional on-farm training in Illinois and of this number 93 percent are operating their own farms.

While these reports must be made to the VA, service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission can and will assist veterans in meeting the deadline by furnishing information or direct aid.

In Morgan county veterans should contact the IVC service officer at 6-7 Morrison Block in Jacksonville.

Exchange Clubs Sponsor Crime Prevention Week

Wayne W. Anderson, president of the Jacksonville Exchange club, has received a copy of Governor Stevenson's proclamation for Crime Prevention Week, Feb. 19 through 25. The national Exchange Club is sponsoring the observance throughout the country.

Governor Stevenson in his proclamation said: "The increase in crime in the United States in recent years has occasioned growing concern among responsible citizens. The annual cost of crime, including the expense of maintaining penal institutions and law-enforcement agencies, is calculated at more than 20 billions of dollars."

"The National Exchange Club has initiated the observance of National Crime Prevention Week to focus public attention upon the need for vigorous, year around crime prevention activities. One of the primary purposes of this observance is to enlist the active cooperation of private agencies and individual citizens in correcting conditions which lead to criminal tendencies particularly among young people."

"In various Illinois cities, Exchange Clubs now are making plans for the observance of Crime Prevention Week and for continuing efforts to aid law enforcement officials, schools, churches and other civic groups seeking to combat this serious problem. This undertaking is in the public interest and merits the support of all citizens."

"Now, Therefore, I, Adlai E. Stevenson, Governor of the State of Illinois, do proclaim the week of February 19 through 25, 1950, as National Crime Prevention Week in Illinois and call upon all citizens to further in whatever ways they can to objectives of this national program to curb crime. Particularly I urge that all citizens give thought to the importance of these activities and that they join in specific community activities, directed toward reducing the volume of crime and its appalling cost."

5 Million In State Funds Can Be Used On Roads In 1950

Salem, Ill., Feb. 10.—(P)—Only about five per cent of the $100,000,000 in annual state highway revenue becomes available for road construction, a state official said today.

Charles P. Casey, public works and buildings director, said that $42,971,000 was collected in motor vehicle license fees and $62,500,000 from the three cents a gallon tax last year.

Speaking before the Salem Rotary club, Casey said that after state law obligations were met, about $43,000,000 was left for the highway division.

Of this balance, he added, only $5,000,000 could be used for highway construction during the year after deductions for administration and engineering costs, refunds to counties, and highway maintenance.

Casey said Illinois must raise new revenue to save its paved highway system.

Edwardsville, Ill., Feb. 10.—(P)—Paul H. Darmer, 30-year-old father of seven children, was sentenced in circuit court yesterday to a one-to-five year prison term on a charge of taking indecent liberties with a 14-year-old girl.

His plea for probation was denied by Judge R. W. Onifan.

Darmer, a chemist, is employed by a chemical firm as a supervisor. He was charged with molesting the girl on the night of Oct. 11 when she passed his automobile while it was parked in Collinsville. He pleaded guilty.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(P)—Hogs ruled steady to 25 cents lower today, and cattle and sheep were generally steady, as trading slackened off for the week end.

Most butcher weight hogs sold from $15.00 to $17.85 and a top of $18.00 while sows made $13.00 to $15.25. Clearance was considered good, although receipts on sale of 6,500 were a slight 500 above trade expectations.

A package of good steers at $28.50 and a load of good heifers $26.00 were about the best of the cattle run. Most medium to low-good fed steers and yearlings ranged from $23.50 to $26.00. Beef cows and bulls topped at $20.00, sausage bulls at $22.00, and vealers at $33.00.

A load of Colorado-fed lambs topped at $26.25 and a load of good to choice grade was the peak of the short section at $24.00, paid by a local small killer.

Among estimated receipts were 1,500 cattle, 200 calves, and 1,000 sheep.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

FROM PITCHFORK TO PICK-UP is the story of the mechanization of haymaking in America during the first half of the Twentieth Century. The change in haymaking methods is typical of many changes made in agriculture as farming grew into big business. Haymaking by hand was a hot, hard job, with a good chance of losing much of the crop to the weather. Today, the lower scene is the common one, with most of the work done by machines like the field forage harrow, seen in operation near Holland, Pa. A fast-spreading system of grassland farming depends largely on machines which pick up and bale or chop forage crops automatically. Farming men expect machines to do more and more of the punishing work on the farms in the next half century.

High Court Asked To End School Segregation

Washington, Feb. 10.—(P)—Solicitor General Philip B. Perlman has asked the supreme court to end the practice in some states of providing "separate but equal" schooling for negroes and whites.

He said it violates the constitution and is an "undisguised species of racial discrimination."

Perlman filed a brief yesterday as a "friend of the court" supporting the claims of two negro students whose cases the court will take up next month.

"The United States," he said, "urges the court to repudiate the 'separate but equal' doctrine as an unwarranted deviation from the principle of equality under law which the 14th amendment explicitly incorporated in the fundamental charter of this country."

That amendment to the constitution provides that no state may "deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Perlman cited an 1880 supreme court decision that the amendment "was designed to assure to the colored race enjoyment of all the civil rights that under the law are enjoyed by white persons."

The two cases coming before the court involve one student who now attends University of Oklahoma classes from an ante-room behind the white student and another who is demanding admission to the all-white law school of the University of Texas.

BUYING LIFTS CORN PRICES IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(P)—A buying movement in corn spread to other grains before the close on the board of trade today.

All cereals moved ahead of their previous close, but only corn was able to make worthwhile gains. Small cash receipts, coupled with the possibility of additional small runs as a result of reductions in railroad freight traffic, spurred buying in the yellow cereal.

Wheat sagged under selling pressure in early dealings, the March contract falling more than a cent at one time. A lowered government estimate of exports this year created the easier tone. But the early losses were made up later in sympathy with corn's strength.

Receipts were: Wheat 4 cars, corn 65, oats 26, rye 1, barley 17, soybeans 1.

Wheat closed 1 lower to 1 higher. March $2.17-1/2, corn was 1-1/2 higher. March $1.28-1/2, oats were 1 lower to 1 higher. May 68-1/2, rye was 1 to 1-1/2 higher. May $1.30-1.301, soybeans were 1/2 lower to 1 higher. March $2.21-1/2, and land was unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower. March $10.55.

New York Stock Market

New York, Feb. 10.—(P)—Pronounced weakness in steel stocks highlighted a relapse in the market today.

An opening rush of demand lifted prices fractions to a point or so, with much of the buying focused on the radio-television group. In ten minutes or so buyers were satisfied, trading slowed, and many of the largest gains were trimmed.

Turnover for the day hit a rate of about 1,800,000 shares for the full session, a very comfortable day's business.

Illini, Indiana Firewagon Fives Meets Mon. Night

Champaign, Ill.—No matter what's at stake, Illinois-Indiana basketball means an all-out clash of firewagon offense and that's what 6,900 fans may expect to see at 7:30 p.m. Monday (Feb. 13) in George Huff gymnasium.

Teams from these two schools have been battling in a rugged series since 1906 and currently Illinois holds a 29-23 edge in the rivalry, principally because Coach Harry Combes has achieved four straight triumphs since taking over in 1948.

In only one tilt, however, has the margin been decisive. Illinois won in 1948 by counts of 52-51 and 46-45. The first 1949 game was a rouble overtime affair which the Illini captured 44-43, but in the second game that season the Combesmen had a terrific offensive pace to win 91-68.

Wally Osterkorn, Illinois high scorer, and Capt. Bill Erickson will lead Illini offensive maneuvers Monday with aid from Don Sunderlage, Burdette Thurbay, and the ever-improving sophomore, Rod Fletcher.

Iowa's Search For Football Centers On Wes Fry, Calif.

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 10.—(AP)—University of Iowa's quest for a football coach appeared centered temporarily today in this area.

Wes Fry, assistant coach at the University of California and a Iowa alumnus, said he had talked briefly with Paul Blommers, athletic board chairman, and Paul Brechler, athletic director.

Fry insisted, however, his discussions with the officials of his old school, were informal and only general in purpose. "I am not a candidate and have not received an offer," Fry declared.

Although he insists he is not a candidate, Fry's name has been linked with the search to find a successor to Dr. Eddie Anderson. Fry was graduated from Iowa in 1927.

Another from this area whose name was mentioned is Larry Siemering, who coached College of the Pacific at Stockton through an undefeated 11-game schedule last year.

The Iowa representatives were expected to contact Siemering today or tomorrow.

WRONG TIME TO ARGUE

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Policeman Joseph Pettitclair says a woman driver gave him quite an argument when he placed a ticket on her car, alleged she parked more than an hour.

"I parked at exactly 1:30 p.m. and at 2:15 you put a ticket on my car," he said she told him. "I timed myself by that clock."

She pointed to a clock on a hotel nearby.

"Well," said Pettitclair, "that clock shows 6 o'clock now. It has been stopped for a year."

SILK, NYLON BARRED IN OPERATING ROOM

Atlanta, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Fire underwriters noted today that certain types of nurses' underwear can be dangerously electrifying.

They found that for operating room purposes silk and nylon were out.

These materials, they found after an inspection trip to Emory University, had been barred because they sometimes generate static electricity sparks which might set off an explosion among the gases used for anesthesia.

Fired-Up Crimson Turn Back Carlville; Williams Leads Locals

Determined to get back on the win trail after suffering two consecutive losses, John Chapman's Jacksonville high school athletes refused to be stopped and rolled over a visiting Carlville outfit 46-33 on the David Prince boards last night.

With Bill Williams getting eight of his 21 points in the first quarter, the Crimson jumped out front 11-4 in the opening quarter. Carlville's touted fast break refused to function when Chapman pulled a bit of strategy that sent Hugh Million to the backguard post. The lanky Million completely stymied several Carlville rushes in the first quarter, holding the invader's offense to a scant quartet of tallies.

Jack Chapman took over the scoring chores for the Crimson in the second period and helped the locals stay ahead 16-13 at halftime.

Carlville rallied back after the second half got underway and scored a quick bucket to come up 16-15 before Chapman and Williams again caught fire and paced Chapman's gang to a 28-22 third quarter advantage.

The Wright, shifty freshman guard, was inserted into the fray at this juncture and turned in an outstanding performance at midcourt.

besides racking up half a dozen points, Wright snared many enemy passes in the middle of the floor and lobbed the ball to Williams down on a fast break. Williams converted eight times and the locals won going to the sun.

The victory put Jacksonville high on the long end of a 10-8 record for the season.

Bob Kraushaar's Jacksonville freshman-sophomore club rapped the Carlville reserves 47-21 in the curtain-raiser.

Chapin Socks Mt. Sterling 38-35 In Two Overtimes

Chapin—Paul Blakeman's Chapin Bears, quinter surprised the high school basketball world here last night by taming the high riding Mt. Sterling Green Hornets 38-35 in a double overtime session.

The score was deadlocked 33-33 at the end of regular playing time and 35-35 winding up the first two minute overtime period. The coaches agreed to play another two minute period instead of the sudden death.

and Chapin racked up three tallies while holding Mt. Sterling scoreless.

It was a PMBC conference game. Bonds and Dunnway headed the winners with 11 and 10 points each. Huebner scored 12 for the Hornets.

The Mt. Sterling seconds won 42-28.

Chicago Cubs Buy J. VanderMeer From Cincinnati

Chicago, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs today announced the purchase of Johnny VanderMeer, 35-year-old left handed pitcher, from the Cincinnati Reds.

Terms of the cash sale were undisclosed.

VanderMeer, who won five games and lost 10 for the seventh-place Reds in 1949, played 12 years with Cincinnati. His all-time record is 116 wins and 116 losses.

In 1938 he pitched two consecutive no hitters and led the National league in strike-outs in 1941, 1942 and 1943.

Earlier today the Cubs announced the purchase of 29-year-old Frank Hiller, Kansas City Blues right-hander.

Three Crewmen Die In Crash

Great Falls, Mont., Feb. 10.—(AP)—An Air Force C-54 transport plane from Great Falls air base crashed into a mountain about 40 miles southeast of here last night, killing its three crewmen.

The names of the victims, whose burned bodies were found in the fire-blackened wreckage by a rescue party about this morning, are being withheld temporarily.

SUSPICIOUS

Joe McCarthy, left, seems very cautious in conversation with Casey Stengel at the New York baseball writers' dinner. The veteran manager of the Red Sox isn't afraid of his counterpart with the Yankees. He got that way dropping pennants in play-offs and on the last day of the season.

Winchester Ties Jerseyville For Valley Lead

Winchester—E. W. Posey's hot-shooting Winchester Wildcats gained a tie in the Illinois Valley basketball sprint by knocking off undefeated Jerseyville 43-38 here last night.

The two teams now have identical 6-1 records in Valley play.

Hoots and Cummings paced the Wildcats with 15 and 14 points each. Reynolds racked up 12 for Jerseyville.

There's little rest in store for Illinois College hoopers this weekend. The battling Blueboys, paced by Bill Shouse who connected for 21 tallies, stayed in the ball game the first 20 minutes, lagging only 33-29 at halftime.

Exploiting the fast-break to its fullest possible advantage on the familiar Decatur high school boards, Milikin pushed ahead of the Miller-men 12 points immediately after the second half got underway. They kept that lead until the closing minutes when Steagal and Ormond added a new move to widen the gap.

The CCI victory gave Milikin a 6-2 rating in league play. Illinois College dropped to a 4-3 mark.

Don Longer, the Blueboys' versatile guard and center, fouled out of the battle in the first seven minutes of the second half. Gross and Shouse followed their lanky mate Sarra Brackner's Park's 400 yards.

Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C., who started the second round deadlocked with Haas at 68, took a one-under-par 70 today to fall into a tie for sixth place with four other players.

Slamming Sammy Sneed of Greenville, Va., the pre-tournament favorite, shot a 8 today to stay in striking distance with 139. Sneed hit into a creek on the 18 and took a two-over five on the hole to hurt his chances. He drew the biggest gallery, 3,000 following the West Virginian on his tour.

End of a Chapter
 By Edwin Rutt

THE STORY: Alice Pine, secretary to writer Muriel Halleck, finds that in an embarrassing position in regard to Muriel's husband, Brent, an artist. Alice suspects Brent of cruelty to Muriel, his small adopted son. Later Brent surprises her while taking a night swim near the Hallecks' home on Long Island Sound. Brent has a long, serious talk with Alice and partially wins her sympathy, although he does not explain the night when Alice suspected that he whipped Rick. Then, on impulse, Brent takes Alice into his arms. Alice protests and Brent has seen the episode, but does not blame Alice. He tries to inform her more than to inform her that under other circumstances he might have been fond of Alice.

IN the week just passed Muriel Halleck had made her novel grow. But now, as Brent's departure was a sudden spur, it seemed to leap forward. Alice Pine was amazed at the piles of foolscap, closely-written, that came to her desk.
 "This is incredible," she said,
 one afternoon. "Better slow down."
 "You'll have a crack-up, Muriel."
 "Do I look in danger of it?"
 Muriel smiled.
 "Honestly, no. You look remarkably healthy. But I don't see how you do it."
 "Well," she smiled faded, "you don't crack up when you're doing precisely what you want to do, to the exclusion of everything else.
 And I mean just that—everything."
 Somehow the little speech made Alice uncomfortable. She wondered suddenly whether a laughing, ringing carelessly over a stretch of beach, had been as careless as it had sounded.
 Despite his proposed program,
 Brent did not come home the following week-end. A telegram on Friday pleaded pressure of work.
 Muriel took the news in her stride.
 "Mm." She crumpled the yellow message. "Well, the lad want-etched Muriel's forehead.

 Rick was obedient. He crossed to Muriel. "Show Muriel," he said, as if he were getting his orders straight.
 Muriel examined the loot. "Why, they're lovely, dear. Wherever did you find so many? Now show them to Alice. Then it's supper and bed for yours, young man."
 The bovine Stella had puffed up.
 "Come on, Rick," she commanded placidly.
 "No," said Rick, disinterestedly rather than rudely. He began to arrange his shells in little heaps in the grass.
 Muriel reached for her drink.
 "That wasn't polite, Rick. Please go with Stella."

RICK looked at her in undecided fashion. But, obviously, he felt committed now to a course of action.
 "No," he repeated. And, with a gesture like an unfortunate afterthought, he stamped his foot.
 "Alice," Muriel turned to her.
 "What do you do in a case like this?"
 "I—I don't know," Alice felt strangely apprehensive.
 Rick stood stubborn and determined. He was something like Brent—or like Brent might have been when he was four years old.
 The child's lip moved a little and his eyes filled with tears.
 "Neither do I. But I'm afraid it's my responsibility, Rick!"
 Muriel's silvery eyes narrowed.
 "Stop this nonsense and go with Stella. At once—do you hear?"
 She spoke patiently, but the patience was wasted on Rick. Motivated by heaven knew what—it could have been, Alice thought, the delight and an audience—the child went into a sudden tantrum.
 Without warning, he plumped himself down on his stomach, small bare legs thrashing the air.
 "I won't," he yelled, defiantly.
 "Stella," Muriel controlled herself, "does this happen often?"
 "No," said Stella, with oceanic calm. "Just sometimes. When he's tired, maybe."
 "Well, he's overtired now. Take him inside."

THE "disturbance" was, indeed, in the offing. Young Rick, leaving the fat Stella hopelessly behind, cavorted toward them across the lawn.
 As he zambled up, Alice decided that Rick was a scavenger by nature. He rarely went anywhere without returning richly laden with whatever caught his eye.

Today it was seashells, an appreciation of which Alice herself had imparted. Both of Rick's hands overfowed with them. He canted cavoring at the terrace and, with a certain childish dignity, walked straight toward Alice.
 At once she put out a long left arm. "No, darling! Show them to Muriel first!"
 Alice was looking at Rick. But from one eye-corner she saw Muriel glance up. A little frown

Suicide, Escape Tries Fail; Theft Suspect Ends In Mental Ward

A prisoner charged with the theft of a taxi cab gave police officials several exciting moments here Friday when he (1) attempted to commit suicide by hanging and (2) attempted to escape while officers were taking him to Justice Paul Hapke's court for a preliminary hearing.

He was held for the grand jury under bonds of $5,000 and taken to the county jail. Physicians later examined the prisoner and sent him to the Jacksonville State Hospital.

Local Responses Vital To National Cardiac Research

The public response to the Morgan County Heart association in its campaign for funds this month will determine, together with the other local drives of the country, the success of the national association's effort to combat heart disease.

Part of the money raised here will be used to build up the new group and give help locally states R. E. May, county chairman; part will go to the American Heart association for supporting individuals engaged in research and financing research projects approved by its scientific council.

Education of the public in present knowledge and new discoveries in the field is another of the group's aims, Mr. May adds.

Sign-Up Periods For Scott Farms To Begin Monday

Winchester—Farmers of Scott county will have an opportunity to discuss agricultural problems and sign up for the 1950 agricultural conservation program in a series of "sign-up meetings" to be held beginning Monday at the P.M.A. office at Winchester.

In announcing these meetings, John C. Moore, chairman of the county PMA committee, urged all farmers to give serious consideration to the 1950 ACP program.

"Not only do farmers have their usual conservation problems to meet this year, but they must also determine what is to be done with land taken out of allotment crops. The ACP program will assist farmers with these conservation problems," Mr. Moore said. All producers are eligible to participate.

Key Witness In Bolton Trial Says Life Threatened

Detroit, Feb. 10.—(P)—A key woman witness in the Walter Reuther shooting case was given protective custody by police today after she reported her life had been threatened.

Mrs. Dorothy Collins, 34, of Toronto, Ont., said the threat was made this morning as she walked to the municipal court building.

The attractive blonde had been called for further questioning in the trial of Carl Bolton in the shooting and wounding of the CIO United Auto Workers president April 20, 1948.

The witness said three men accosted her. Two of them, she said, put their hands in their coat pockets menacingly and warned her, "If you say anything more in the Bolton case we'll rub you out."

Mrs. Collins is the common law wife of John Kaliszewski, a convict, who testified that Bolton offered him $15,000 to do away with Reuther three days before the shooting. He said he turned it down as inadequate.

Heart Sister Week To Close Sunday At MacMurray

MacMurray College's traditional Heart Sister Week, sponsored annually by the campus Y.W.C.A., will culminate this year on Sunday, Feb. 12, with the "Heart Sister Supper" at 5 p.m. in Main Hall social room.

The project, under the leadership of Muriel Shennan of Oak Park, Ill., has been in progress since February 8. Each Heart Sister has been doing kind deeds for and giving clever gifts to her secret friend whose name she found in her mailbox earlier in the week. On Sunday, each girl will discover the identity of her Heart Sister and at that time the secret friends will exchange their last and nicest gifts.

Jane Knetzer of Pittsboro, Ill., is chairman of the preparations for the supper. There will be entertainment after the supper—Marilyn Miles will give a reading, Pat Kowalski will sing, and Barbara Dixon will lead community singing.

Scott Elevators Load 1948 Corn For Export

Glasgow—Three Scott county elevators, one in Alsey and two in Winchester, have been busy the past week loading out the entire 1948 crop of government corn in Scott county. It is slated for export to European countries.

This corn has been stored in government bins, both of the round steel and Quonset type, which had been erected in groups last fall on three sites, at the Groun farm, south of Winchester, the Ring farm, just east of that city, and at the Keeler Park farm, southeast of Winchester, under Scott county AAA supervision.

According to information furnished by Claude Haney of Glasgow, bin-side supervisor and tester, approximately 600,000 bushels of this corn was stored in Scott county. The entire lot has been ordered to be moved out within the next six weeks. By the present schedule, 102 railroad grain cars will be loaded from the Alsey elevator, and 102 loaded from the Winchester Farmers elevator and 90 cars from the Terminal Grain elevator in Winchester.

The government awarded the contract for loading the corn to these elevators at 6 cents per bushel. The elevators then cover sub-contract to Ralph Sells and James Campbell of Winchester to truck the grain from the government storage bins to the elevators.

A machine, known as a "vacuator," is used in removing the corn from the bins and loading it into the trucks. Its operation includes the suction of the grain through a pipe inserted into the bin of corn by a small, but powerful fan, which then blows it through another pipe into the truck.

This corn upon being loaded into the grain cars at the elevators is billed to Baltimore, Md. for export, where it is loaded into cargo ships for the Atlantic crossing to Europe.

All these cars are routed through Chicago, where they are halted while being given a rigid government inspection. Practically all of the Scott county corn shipped out thus far has received a No. 1 grading.

Rival Union Head Calls Lewis Father Of Taft-Hartley

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—(P)—A rival union chief today called John L. Lewis the "father" of the Taft-Hartley law.

John Marchiondo, Progressive Mine Workers president, said Lewis' "unwarranted actions provoked passage of this law."

Marchiondo said Lewis wanted the Taft-Hartley act invoked in the current coal crisis for two reasons: First, to "discredit the administration" and second, to "pull him (Lewis) out of a hole so he can blame his strike failures on the application of the law rather than his own action."

Marchiondo's union claims 15,000 members, mostly in Illinois. In its 17 year history the PMW has waged bitter battles with Lewis' United Mine Workers for representation of miners.

While most UMW members are on strike the Progressives have been working under an extension of a contract which expired June 1, 1949. Usually, PMW contract terms are patterned after those of Lewis' union.

Crown Point, Ind., Feb. 10.—(P)—A 29-year-old unemployed mill-hand charged with killing his father with a shotgun was committed today to the Colony for Criminal Insane at the Michigan City state prison.

Before issuing the order Judge Murray conferred with Dr. P. H. Weeks, a psychiatrist at the state prison, and Dr. E. E
